Learning objectives

1. To be able to name the most common reasons for positive and negative patient reviews of physicians on social media websites.
2. Learn tools to increase the likelihood of patient adherence to ocular medications and therapies.
3. To understand the benefits and limitations of various scleral lens modalities and understand the techniques used in prescribing them.
4. Learn a model for resolving difficult interactions with patients and colleagues.
5. Describe new glaucoma drops, the way they work and possible adverse reactions to be aware of.
6. Understand how a guide dog is chosen, what it takes to raise and train one, and how he or she is paired with the right recipient.
7. Learn about the independence that a guide dog can give to a partially sighted individual from an actual recipient.
8. Name the various types of corneal dystrophies and the medications and procedures used to treat them.
9. Identify risks for developing neovascular glaucoma.
10. Learn how to evaluate the anterior chamber and iris for neovascularization.
11. Discuss ways to overcome complacency when working up a patient, beware, cataracts are not always to blame.
12. Learn to keep an open mind and watch for conditions that mimic simple diagnoses.
